

Customers can purchase items from the comfort of their own homes or work place. Shopping is made easier and convenient for the customer through internet. It is also easy to cancel the transactions. Long duration and lack of proper inventory management result in delays in shipment. Lack of touch-feel-try creates concerns over the quality of the product on offer. The rate of cyber crimes has been increasing and customers.